PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Mandate of the Dance Section	The Dance Section supports Canadian, professional dance of many cultures through policies, programs and initiatives that foster the development of a vital ecology for the art form and contribute to a significant presence by Canadian dance artists at home and abroad.
Program Description	This program assists individual Canadian dance professionals to travel on occasions to attend or participate in activities that are important to the development of their artistic practice or career. Travel Grants do not support touring activities. Dance artists who have been invited to tour nationally or internationally should refer to the Dance Touring Grants programs.
Eligibility	Note that meeting the eligibility criteria does not guarantee that you will receive a grant. Eligible applicants To apply to this program, you must be a Canadian citizen or have permanent resident status, as defined by Citizenship and Immigration Canada. You do not need to be living in Canada when you apply. You must also meet the Canada Council’s definition of a professional artist, which is an artist who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • has specialized training in the field (not necessarily in academic institutions) • is recognized as such by his or her peers (artists working in the same artistic tradition) • is committed to devoting more time to artistic activity, if possible financially • has a history of public presentation. In addition, to meet the above definition of a dance professional: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • dancers must have completed professional training and have at least one year of paid performance in a professional context • choreographers must have presented at least three works publicly in the last three years in a professional context. The works choreographed must have been set using paid professional artists (this does not include school or pre-professional work) • designers and technicians must have been paid to work on at least three professional productions. Professionals working in all dance world cultures and in a wide range of dance genres and specializations are eligible to apply for support (see Appendix A of the form). Full-time undergraduate or high school students enrolled at a dance academy, training institution, school, college or university are not eligible to apply.

Eligibility (continued)	Eligible Travel Travel grants are for the following seven specific situations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Invited to perform A dance artist is invited to perform as a guest with a professional company where all the artists are paid, or he or she is offered a unique opportunity to perform at a professional festival. The company or festival must offer a fee to the dancer, in writing, for this guest engagement. Note: Travel grants are not available for participation at Canadian festivals that are funded through the Dance Presentation program. 2. Invited to present a paper or to teach A dance professional is invited to present a paper or lead an activity at a conference, festival or symposium. The host organization must offer a fee to the applicant, in writing, for this presentation or activity. Note: Travel grants are not available for participation at Canadian conferences that are funded through the Support Services to the Dance Milieu program. 3. Invited to take part in a collective creation A choreographer or dancer is invited to participate in a collective creation where credit for authorship will be shared equally among the participants. The event must be one-time and exceptional, and cannot be part of a company's regular season. 4. Invited to audition A dance artist receives a written invitation to audition, from a professional dance company in Canada or abroad. The company must confirm, in writing, that it has the ability to offer the artist a minimum of 20 weeks of paid work, including a minimum of three weeks of national or international touring. 5. Conducting an audition tour An artistic director wishes to conduct an audition tour of at least three cities, in Canada or internationally. Artistic directors of professional Canadian companies are eligible if they can confirm their ability to offer a minimum of 20 weeks of paid work to dance artists, including a minimum of three weeks of national or international touring. 6. Studying with a scholarship or bursary A choreographer or dancer receives a written invitation and a confirmed scholarship or bursary to participate in an advanced professional workshop. The workshop must be for less than one month's duration and be conducted by a professional dance organization. Scholarships can be offered by a third party and do not need to come from the host organization.

Eligibility (continued)	7. Invited to set a choreography A choreographer is invited to set a new or existing choreography on a professional dance company, or to attend the premiere of that work. The host company must be professional, in other words all artists must be paid, and the company must offer a fee (in writing) for the choreography. Note: Box office and in-kind revenues from the host organization for accommodation, per diem and other costs do not constitute a fee or bursary.
Grant Amount	Amount available You may apply for one of the following fixed amounts of $500, $750, $1,000, $1,500, $2,000 or $2,500. However, the amounts of $2,000 and $2,500 are available only if you are travelling to or from northern Canada or to international destinations other than the United States and Europe. These grants cannot be used for travel activities that occur before the date that the application is submitted. You may include two or more destinations, as long as they are part of one consecutive trip. This program intends to support activity in a limited period of time and involving paid fees. It is not aimed at a series of activities over an extended period of time. Travel grants are available as a contribution toward your travel costs, based on the most economical available air and/or train fares. You should apply for the fixed amount that will come closest to covering the fares, and you must justify the amount requested. If final travel costs are lower than the amount granted, you will be required to return the unused portion of the grant, if it is over $100. You must state your planned method of travel and the exact fares quoted by a travel agency or website. The Canada Council for the Arts will fund projects that also receive funding from other public or private organizations, but not to cover the same expenses. Eligible expenses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • travel costs (air, train or bus fare). Ineligible expenses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • commuting and local ground transportation • self-presenting costs • production costs • publishing-related costs • cost of purchasing equipment, costumes and props • honoraria or fees for the applicant • accommodation and per diem costs • workshop fees or tuition.

Access Requirements	Applicants who are Deaf or have disabilities may apply for additional funds to cover expenses for specific services and supports which are required to carry out the proposed eligible grant activities. The Canada Council can make a contribution towards the requested eligible expenses. Eligible expenses Eligible expenses may include but are not limited to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • sign language interpretation • a personal attendant • a guide • rental of specialized equipment. Ineligible expenses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • major capital expenses (e.g. purchase of wheelchair, vehicle, computer, renovations, etc.) • services and supports for which an individual is already receiving funding • services and supports which are not directly tied to the activities supported by the grant. Eligible access requirements and expenses are detailed in the application form. Requests are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Please contact the Program Officer if you have any questions about your request.
Assessment of Applications	Assessment process Applications will be assessed internally by a committee of Program Officers from the Dance Section. Funding decisions are based on the availability of funds and the overall merit of the project in comparison with other eligible applications in this national competition. In the situation where there are limited funds and several applicants are assessed as having equal merit, strategic priorities may be taken into consideration by the assessment committee. Travel proposals that have received support from this program in the past (for the same activity with the same host organization) will be given a lower priority in the assessment process. Assessment criteria The assessment committee will base its review of applications on the assessment criteria listed below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The importance of the proposed travel for the development of your practice or career. • The artistic impact of the event, festival, conference or other host organization to be visited. (The artistic impact must be made clear in your application.) • Your understanding of the characteristics, scope and influence of the organization, event, festival or conference to be visited. (This understanding must also be made clear in the application.) • The clarity of the proposal and completeness of the required support material.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Processing the application

Acknowledgement of receipt

The Canada Council will send you, by mail, a notice acknowledging that your application has been received. This notice will be sent out shortly after your application has arrived. It should be noted that the acknowledgement of receipt indicates that the application was received; it does not confirm the eligibility of your application.

Response time

Applicants are informed of the competition results by mail approximately eight weeks after their application has been received. The Canada Council does not release results by telephone or email.

If you have filled out the Travel Grants for Dance Professionals application form using Go! Grants Online, you will receive an electronic notice asking you to consult the status of your application to learn the result.

Application preparation

- You are responsible for providing all the information and support material requested.
- The Canada Council will make decisions about your eligibility based on the information you provide in your application.
- Submit only the material requested. Extra material will not be shown to the peer assessment committee.
- Carefully choose the material you submit in support of your application as committee members have limited time in which to study each grant application.
- Do not submit originals. The Canada Council is not responsible for the loss or damage of support material submitted.

Voluntary Self-identification Form

The Canada Council for the Arts is a federal Crown corporation created by an Act of Parliament, and it has certain legal obligations under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

The federal Privacy Act protects the personal information that you provide on this form.

The Canada Council for the Arts' mandate is to support the study, enjoyment and production of works in the arts. Moreover, the Canada Council would like to strengthen its positive impact on all professional Canadian artists. The Canada Council can better achieve these objectives if it knows more about who applies to its programs and who receives its funding.

The Canada Council is committed to equity, diversity and inclusion when providing grants and services to professional artists and arts organizations. Its policies reflect Canada's rich and complex reality, and the Canada Council uses its unique national perspective to identify and address issues related to access. The issues can be—but are not limited to—regional, cultural, racial, generational, language-based, Aboriginal-based, disability-based and (or) gender-based.

For this reason, you are encouraged to complete this voluntary self-identification form to help the Canada Council determine whether its programs and services are reaching a diverse and wide range of Canadian artists, as intended. Individuals who are applying for a grant as members of a collective and (or) an ensemble are also encouraged to complete this form.

The form will be detached from program application forms. The information that you provide in this form will not be used to determine your eligibility.

How will the Canada Council use the information that you provide?

Your voluntary self-identification information may be used to:

- generate statistics that will measure the impact of, and identify gaps in, funding
- ensure there is diversity in the membership of peer assessment committees, advisory committees and focus groups
- gather information to help the Canada Council with the design, review and evaluation of its programs
- plan outreach activities and targets
- report to the Canada Council Board and committees
- share information with other government departments, organizations and contractors with whom the Canada Council has a data sharing agreement (please refer to the consent option on page 4), and
- Identify applications for priority funding after they have been assessed as having equal merit with other applications.

How will the Canada Council protect the information that you provide?

By submitting your personal information, you are consenting to its collection, use and disclosure in accordance with the Privacy Act. The Canada Council will use or disclose the information to others only for the purposes stated. If the Canada Council wishes to use your information for other purposes, it must first receive your written consent to do so.

Personal information collected on this form will be stored in the personal information bank for the appropriate program.
PROTECTED WHEN COMPLETED
